

Made in (Asian) America(n)

A Pop-Up Exhibition featuring Asian American Artists in celebration of Asian Pacific American Heritage Month (May)

Featured Artists:

Roan Bontempo, Sara Crispin,
Lizzy Choi, Webster Nguyen, Corin Kumamoto

May 4th

Reception with live music by Kumi Maxson feat. Kayanu
6-8pm

526 Broadway Santa Cruz, CA 95060

Santa Cruz

Art League

Santa Cruz

Art League

News Release

Santa Cruz Art League Presents: Made in (Asian) America(n)

Showcasing artwork from Asian American artists in the Santa Cruz area.

Exhibition: Made in (Asian) America(n)

Venue: Santa Cruz Art League, 526 Broadway, Santa Cruz

Dates: Friday, May 4th 2018.

Reception: Friday, May 4th 6-8pm.

Live music with Kumi Maxson featuring Kayanu

(Santa Cruz, CA – May 4th, 2018) – On Friday, May 4th, the Santa Cruz Art League will present the pop up exhibition Made in (Asian) America(n), featuring artwork from 5 different local artists, all students and alumni of UC Santa Cruz.

The Santa Cruz Art League is proud to present artists Webster Nguyen, Sara Crispin, Lizzy Choi, Roan Bontempo, and Corin Kumamoto. Their artwork includes paintings, photography, and a variety of printmedia. The one day exhibition is put together in honor of Asian Pacific American Heritage month, which is nationally recognized as the month of May. Artists' pieces are about personal and interpersonal experiences, relationships, and emotions as an Asian American.

VISITOR INFORMATION

Admission: Free

First Friday Reception: 6-8pm

Open until 9pm

526 Broadway, Santa Cruz, CA 95060

www.scal.org

Keep up with us on Instagram!

@santacruzartleague #scartleague

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Valéria ("Val") Miranda, Executive Director

valeria@scal.org

831.426.5787

Corin Kumamoto, Curator, Intern

mkumamot@ucsc.edu

